What time does the bus leave for the game? Did you bring the blankets? They sure practiced a long time last night. You think we'll win? Who do you think will get queen? Oh not her. I didn't ever think we'd finish the float on time. Wasn't the Musical good last night, loved that last song Got so dark last night I couldn't find my golf ball . . . Her tennis game sure has improved.

Steve Nevels

Hope it freezes, then we can have a skating party at the club. You think we'll get out early? It's coming down pretty hard now. Is the heat on? Boy, the country roads are really drifted. He pinned his man in 12 sec.; can you believe that, 12 sec. That's a new school record. She got the shot off on the buzzer and we won. They did their routine to "Rock'n Me" last night. From KBEQ; he should be good. I'll work in the concession.

Steve Nevels

LIVING -

EXPERIENCING...

1.) Working through the spring time is often too much for some students. 2.) What's the matter now, Mary Beth? 3.) Doug Serfass shows that skipping out of school can lead to a lot of hard work, with a chance of some tanning. 4.) Grooving on nature is a constant spring experience. 5.) Beth Spencer and Suzanne Evans don't care that school is functioning without them. 6.) "You see this club, buster?" 7.) "Make sure you have your cap on straight Debbie."

ADMINISTRATION

1.) Mr. Roy W. Rupp, Superintendent of Schools, faced many financial decisions concerning the 1976-77 school year. 2.) Mrs. Barbara Miller, Secretary of the Board of Education. 3.) The Brookfield R-3 Board of Education made some changes after the April elections. Pictured left to right: Mr. Ray Bennett, Mr. Kenneth Burns, Mr. John Tomlin, Mrs. Barbara Miller, secretary; Mr. James Kallaher, Mr. Kenneth C. Jones, President. NOT PICTURED, Mr. Don Riepe.

1977:

The Year of the Levy

The Brookfield R-3 Superintendent of Schools and Board of Education probably wish 1976-77 was a school year that never was. In their efforts to give Brookfield a quality education they were faced with inflation, low revenue sources, and changes in state funds allocations.

To top this problem, the community reaction to the school district's financial crunch was heated, and mixed in sentiment to say the least. Adding to this were rumors and counter-rumors about how money was being spent in the district.

In an attempt to solve the district's revenue crisis the Board voted to run a 90 ¢ tax levy increase in February. Needing a two-thirds majority for passage, it failed by a 58% majority. The Board decided to rerun the same increase in early April. That effort failed by a 54% majority. So as not to be totally without revenue for the 1977-78 school year the Board voted a "last-gasp" 30¢ levy to be run on April 29. Ironically, that effort passed by a clear two-thirds majority when only a simple majority was necessary.

Consequently, the 1977-78 school year will see some changes, but they will not be the drastic changes first proposed by the Board with no increase in tax revenue. There will be some staff cuts, some reductions in length of administrative contracts, and a decrease in equipment purchases for the following year.

Mr. Dennis Crossett, principal, and Mr. Bill Olinger, assistant principal and Athletics Director, resigned at the end of the year. On May 18 the faculty gathered to give them gifts and wish them good futures. 1.) Mr. O. could always boost excitement at pep assemblies. 2.) Mr. Crossett and Mr. Olinger give hilarious approval to their caricatures drawn by Diane Boley, BHS art instructor. 3.) Nancy and Bill Olinger, and Dennis and Kay Crossett pose behind the cake which sported caricatures of the two men and the caption-"you picked a fine time to leave us, Lucille!" Mr. O. could often be heard singing those lyrics of a popular country-western song. 4.) "So that's how they see me!" 5.) Mr. O. approves the caricature of the famous "wide part" in his red hair.

"you picked a fine time to leave us, Lucille"

PERSONNEL

1.) Mr. Dave Packer, career counselor for the VO-Tech school and the high school, also coached X-Country and Track. Here he studies a chart of the X-Country team's performance. 2.) Mrs. Hurla Sprague serves as teacher's aid and secretary to the Athletics Director. 3.) Mr. Jack Roberts, Guidance Counselor. 4,5.) Mrs. Doris Quimby serves capably as secretary for the high school and for Mr. Crossett. She always has time to listen to students' needs and teachers' requests. Her desk always shows a mountain of work for state records of attendance and BHS financial matters. 6.) Mrs. Sprague and Mrs. Louise Holloway (second from right), instruct office helpers. 7.) Bryan Dorkins could care less, but Mrs. Q. obviously doesn't want this picture to be taken. 8.) Regrettably the pictures of the office helpers were either lost or stolen. Rather than let them go unremembered we print these contact samples.

Bus Drivers

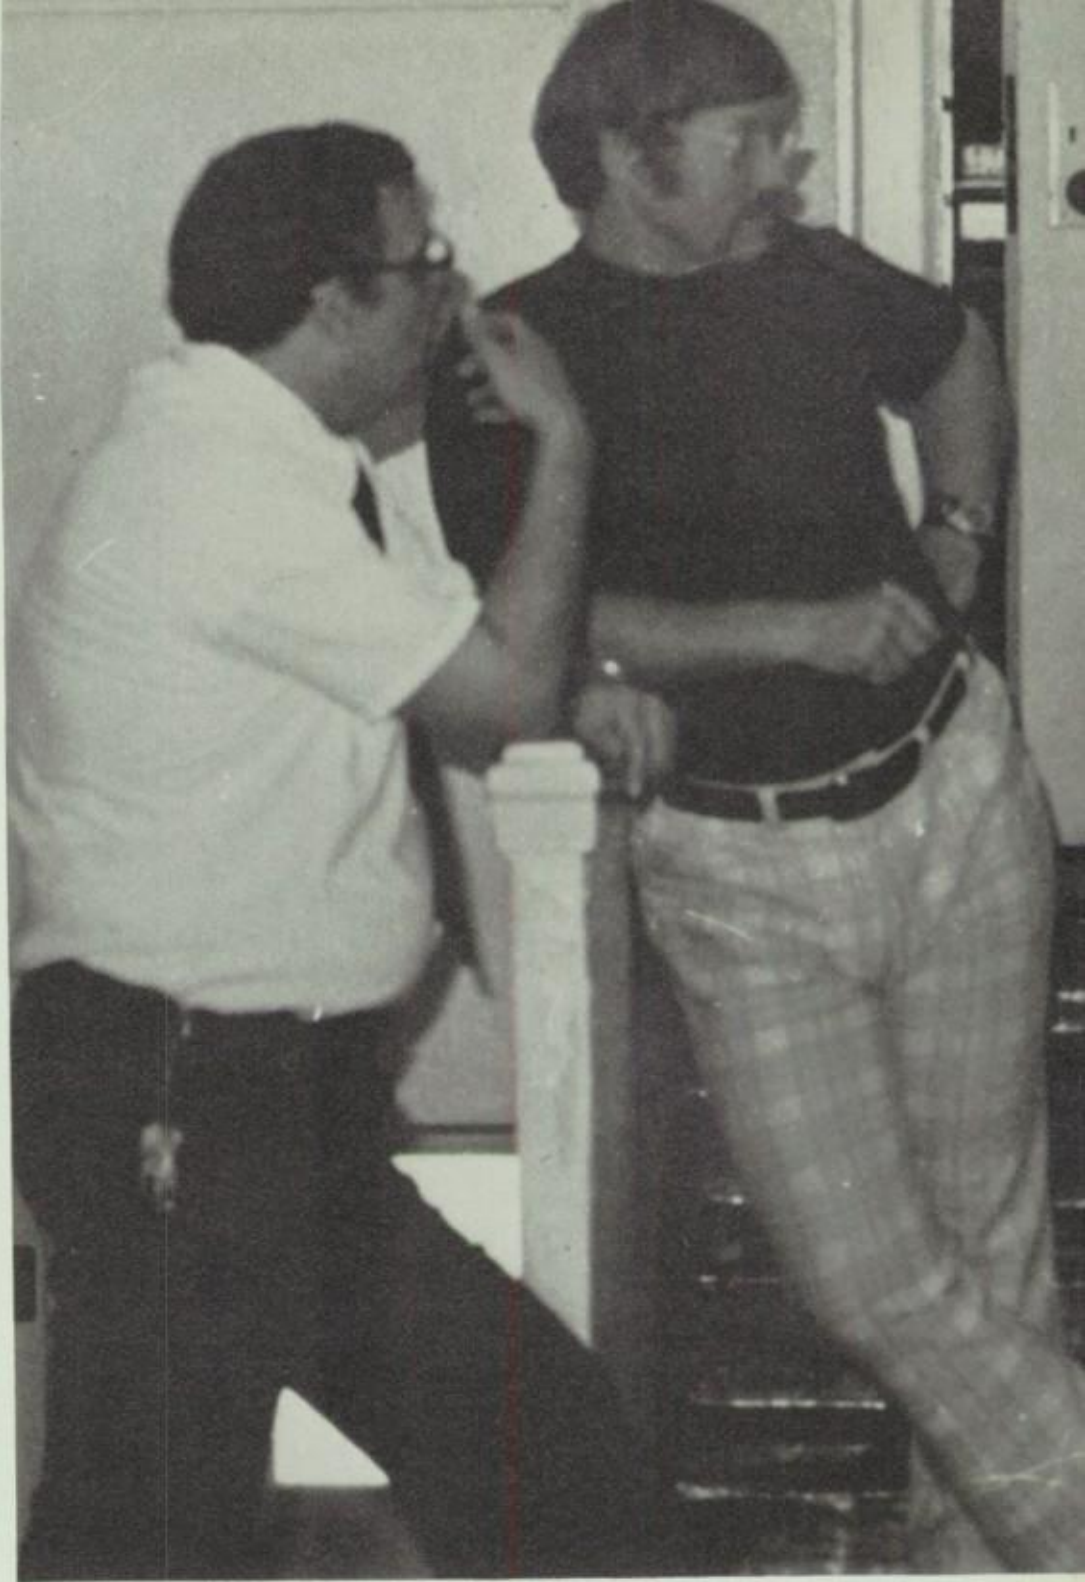

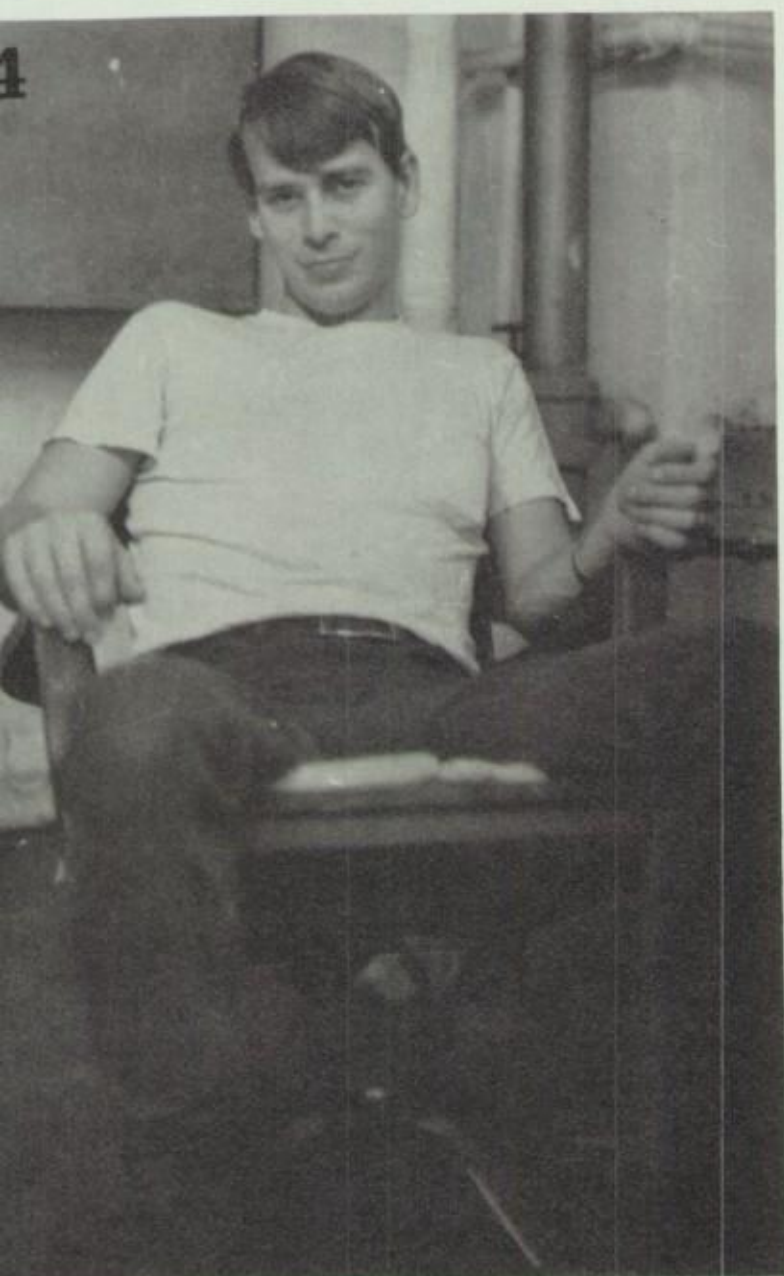

Custodians

1.) Bus Drivers: STANDING - Mr. Dowell, Donald Sherman, Harold Armstrong, Forrest Piggott, Wayne Clements, Gerald Woods, Larry Smith. KNEELING - Charles Lambert, Vernon Heath, Edward Peery, Darrell Middle, Dean Allen. 2.) Judd Schaefer occupies his favorite chair in paradise: The Boiler Room. 3.) Many students have no idea of Earl Meyers' talents. Besides working on cars, Q.'s faithful non-working office clock, he can ably sing many boiler room ballads. 4.) James Wiley took over as night custodian after the retirement of Lyle Downey.

5.) Apologies to Mr. Raymond Huff, head custodian, and Lyle Downey for not having taken their pictures.

Apology & Thank You

Herein we wish to make apologies for certain oversights. Our principal oversight was never arranging a picture of our cafeteria personnel. These hard-working ladies were Helen Rauer, Bethene Deem, Winoma Carr, Louise Wright. Also not pictured; Mr. "Banty" Sims, custodian at the Vo-Tech School.

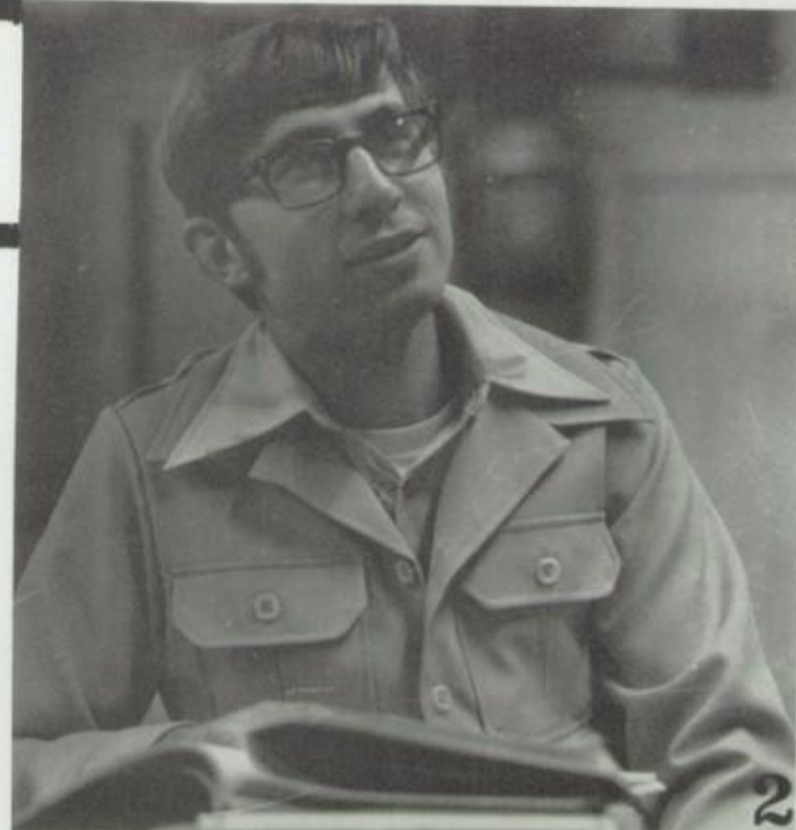

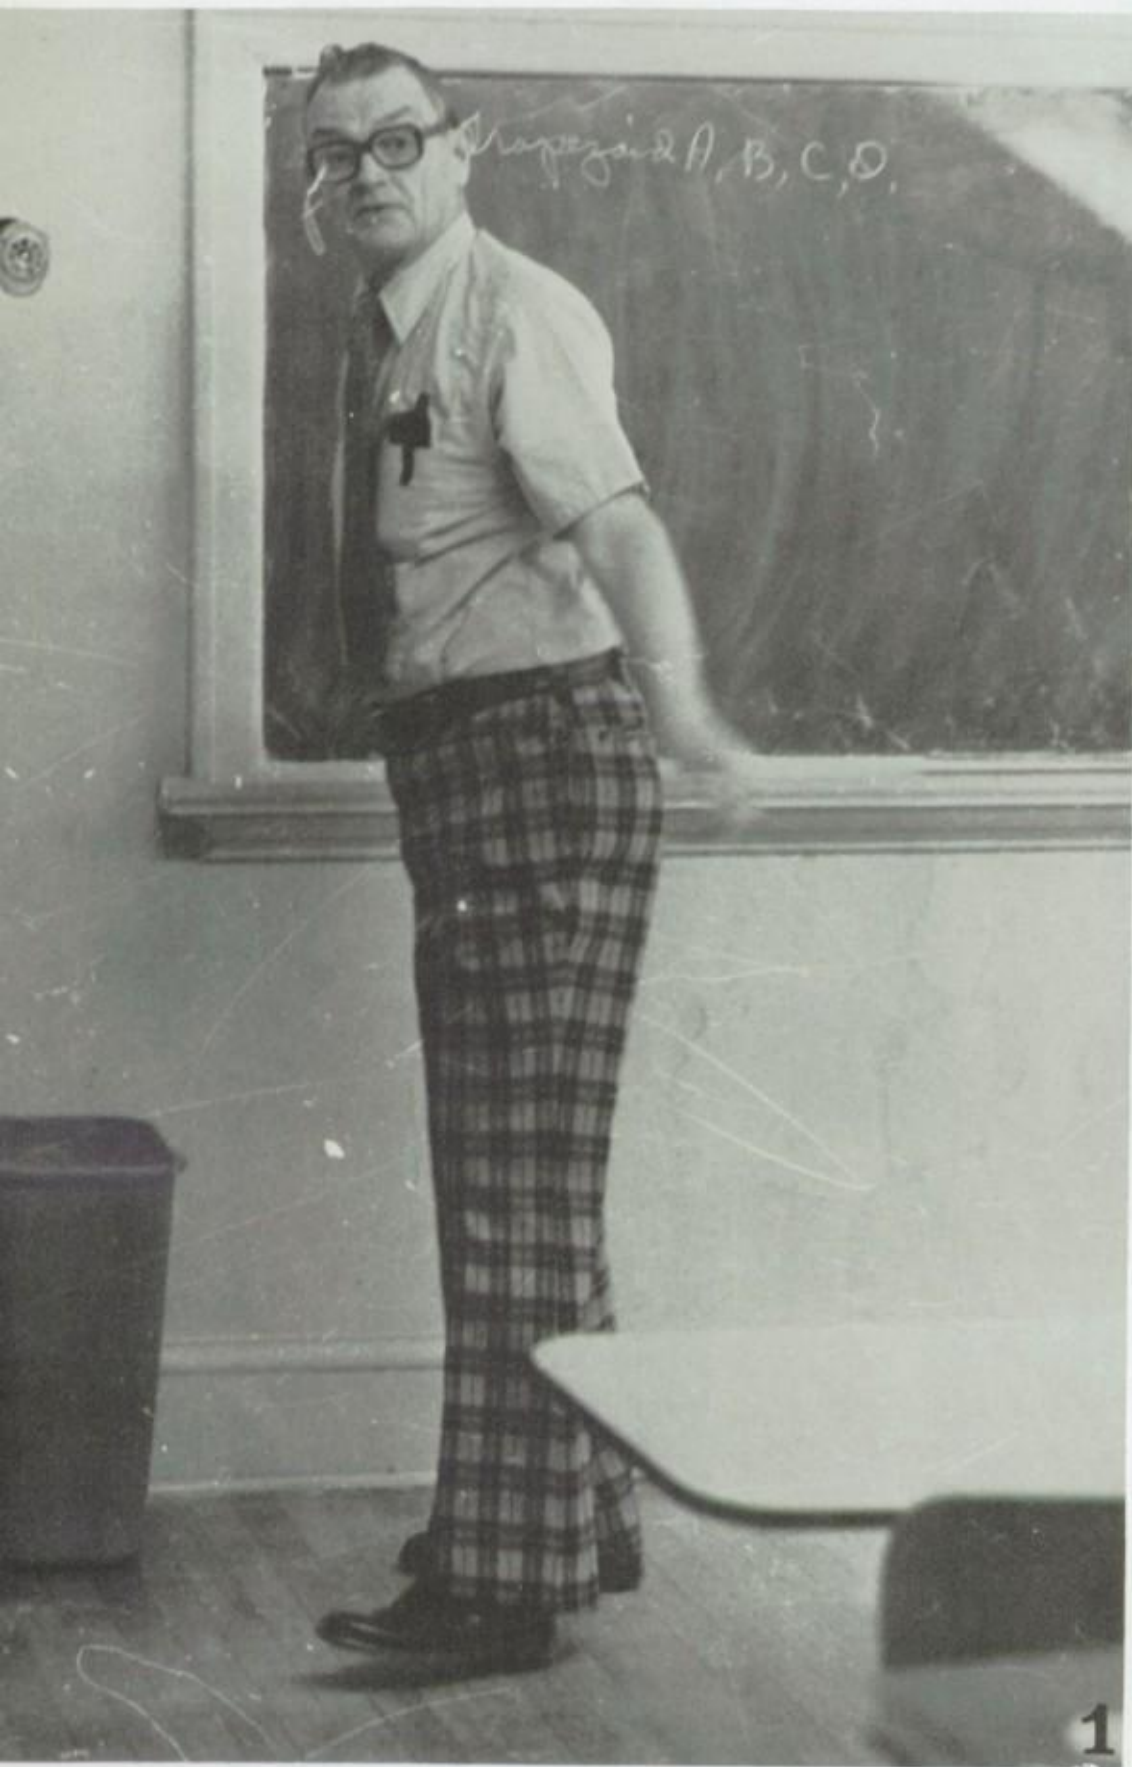

We also wish to apologize to the faculty members who are represented by less-than-average quality pictures. We will do better next year.

As adviser I would like to make a special thank you to these people who worked during the last week of school and after school to finish the Bark. Thank you Kelly Davolt, Bark Editor 1977-78; Erin Jackson, Barbara Hayen, Marcie Olinger, Roxie Fisher, and Beth Spencer. Their conscientious effort made the Bark a reality instead of a scramble of mixed pictures and half-done dummy layouts.

Mr. Hart

MATH

1.) Mr. O. H. Williams entertains his geometry and senior math classes with the unforgettable tales of coon hunting. 2.) Mr. Jones dreams of a test consisting of 20 word problems. 3.) Mr. Barrett Jones, teaches general math and algebra I and II. 4.) Mrs. Cathy Wombwell, general math, elementary functions, and physics instructor, is pleased with her students' efforts.

FOREIGN LANGUAGES

1.) Mrs. Chick, French instructor, gives her silent warning. 2.) Mrs. Cunningham has double responsibilities at BHS, teaching Spanish and serving as a cheerleading sponsor. 3.) Mrs. Chick flashes one of those beautiful smiles.

LANGUAGE ARTS

1.) Mrs. McMullin ponders over another literary crisis. 2.) Mrs. Donna Hosford, Senior Language Arts teacher, is stunned by yet another Senior comment. 3.) Mr. Davis, drama and speech instructor, displays excellent class control. 4.) Mrs. Packer dreams of the last day of school. 5.) Mr. Hart, English and school publications teacher is caught by the camera.

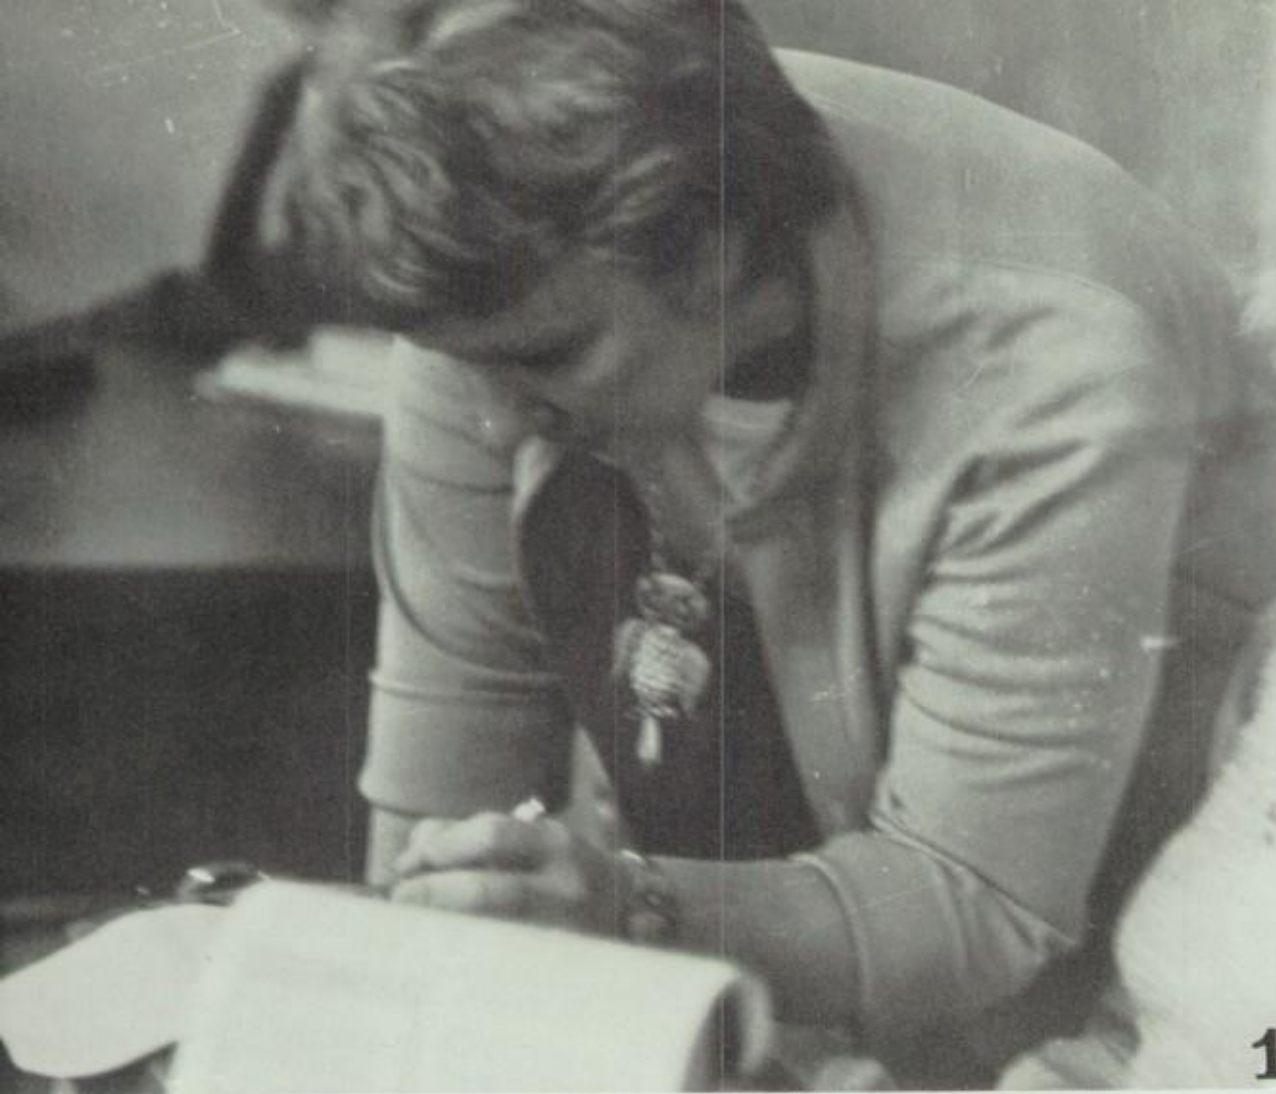

HISTORY

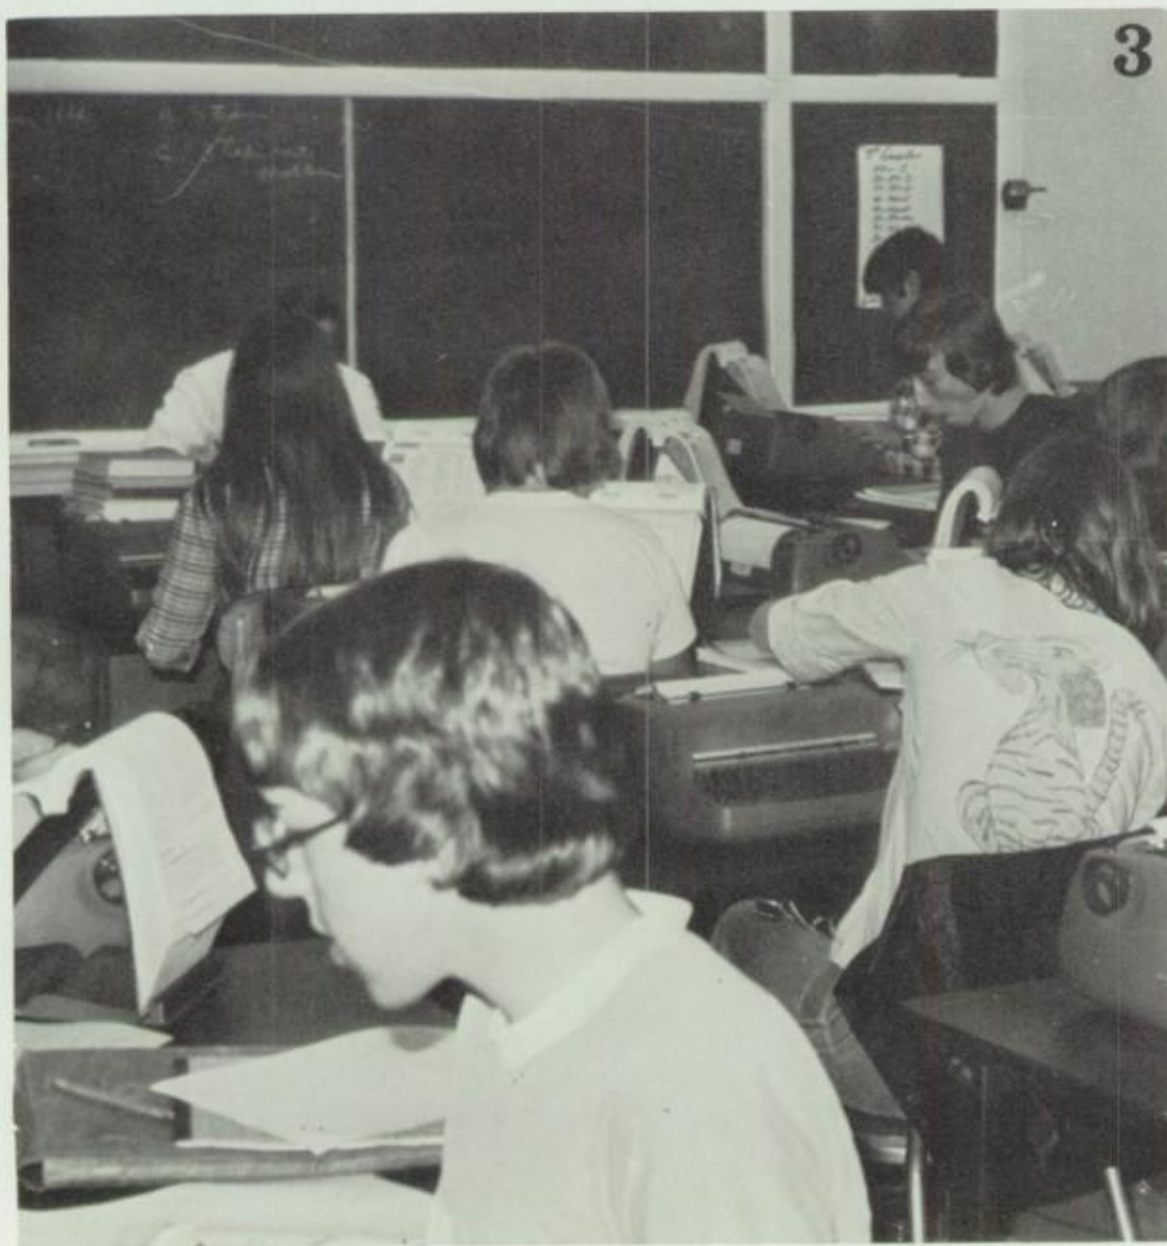

1.) Mr. Tomlinson recreates the Battle of Waterloo on his desk. 2.) Mr. Van Ingen gives advice on classroom behavior. 3.) Mr. Van Ingen gives an interesting and enlightening lecture. 4.) Many apologies to Mrs. Mary Lou Price for the poor quality of this picture. When it was discovered to be the only existing picture, it was too late to take another.

1.) Miss Boley, art instructor, takes time out to relax. 2.) Mr. Victor Stuart, along with Mr. Pundmann instructs the instrumental music program at BHS, involving around 200 students. 3.) Mr. Pundmann takes a bow before stepping to the podium. 4.) Mrs. Wombwell heads the vocal music program at BHS.

BUSINESS

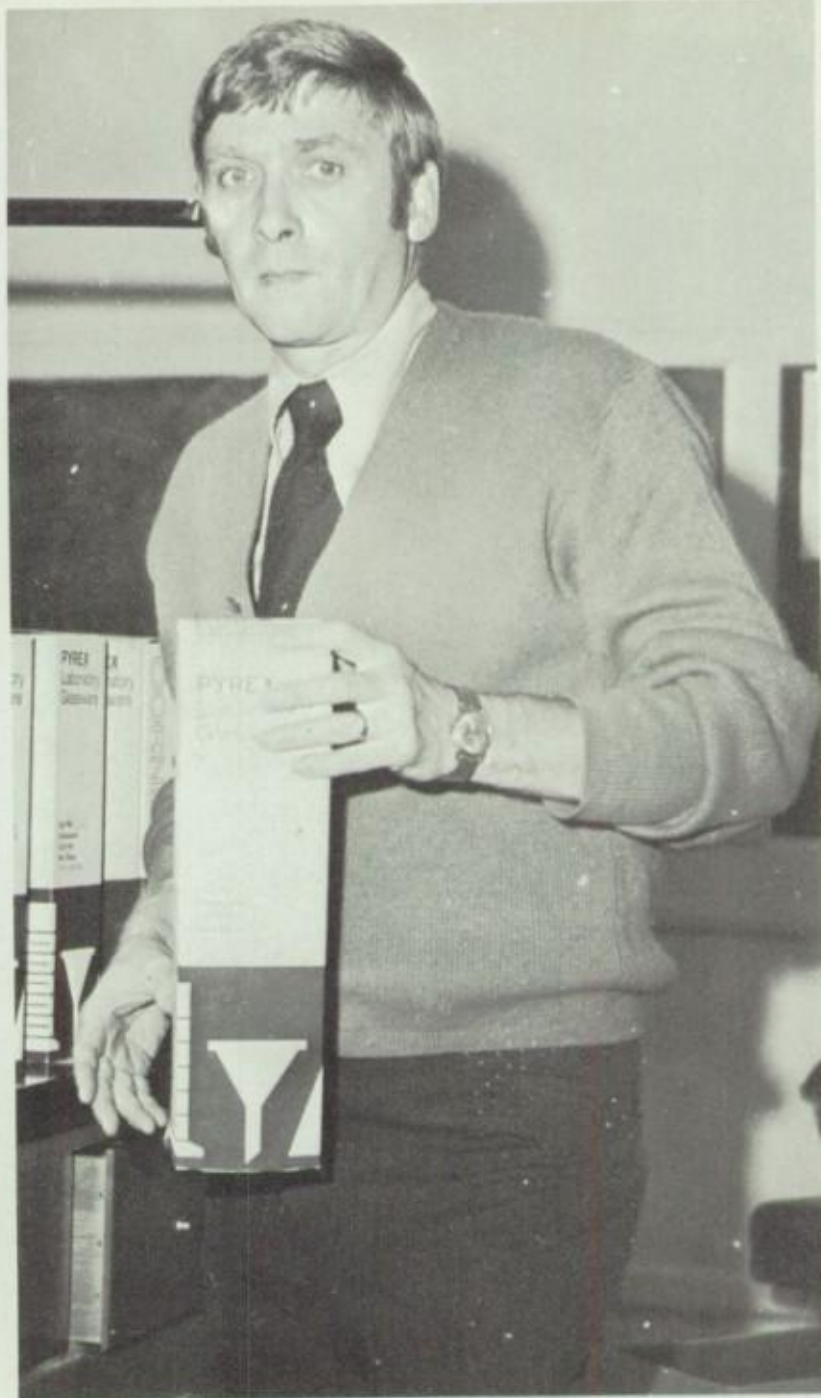

1.) Mrs. Mosley, typing and accounting teacher, confirms a student's timed writing total. 2.) Mr. Hosford, typing and shorthand instructor, pauses between dictation exercises. 3.) Dedicated students work hard on their typing skills.

Practical Arts

1.) The typical walking stride of Mr. Rich "Digger" O'Dell struck fear in the hearts and minds of lowly freshman recruits. Everyone called him "Sir!" Mr. O'Dell resigned in February. He was replaced by Mr. Terry May (4) for the remainder of the year. 2.) Mrs. Timotheia Haag braves wind and sun to coach girls' tennis. She will replace Mrs. Lela Wright as librarian in 1977-78, no longer teaching girls' physical education. 3.) Mr. Rich Woods is unaware of Nelson Richter's monkey shines at the going-away coffee for Mr. Crossett and Mr. Olinger. 4.) "This talent!" Mr. May taught boys' physical education. 5.) "Just what I've always wanted." Mr. Richter received the "Big Red Apple," courtesy of student votes. 6.) "Did you have to hit the curb?" 7.) Mr. Rich Woods, (driver's education) seems to enjoy the speaker of this assembly. 8.) Mr. Nelson Richter taught driver's education and health.

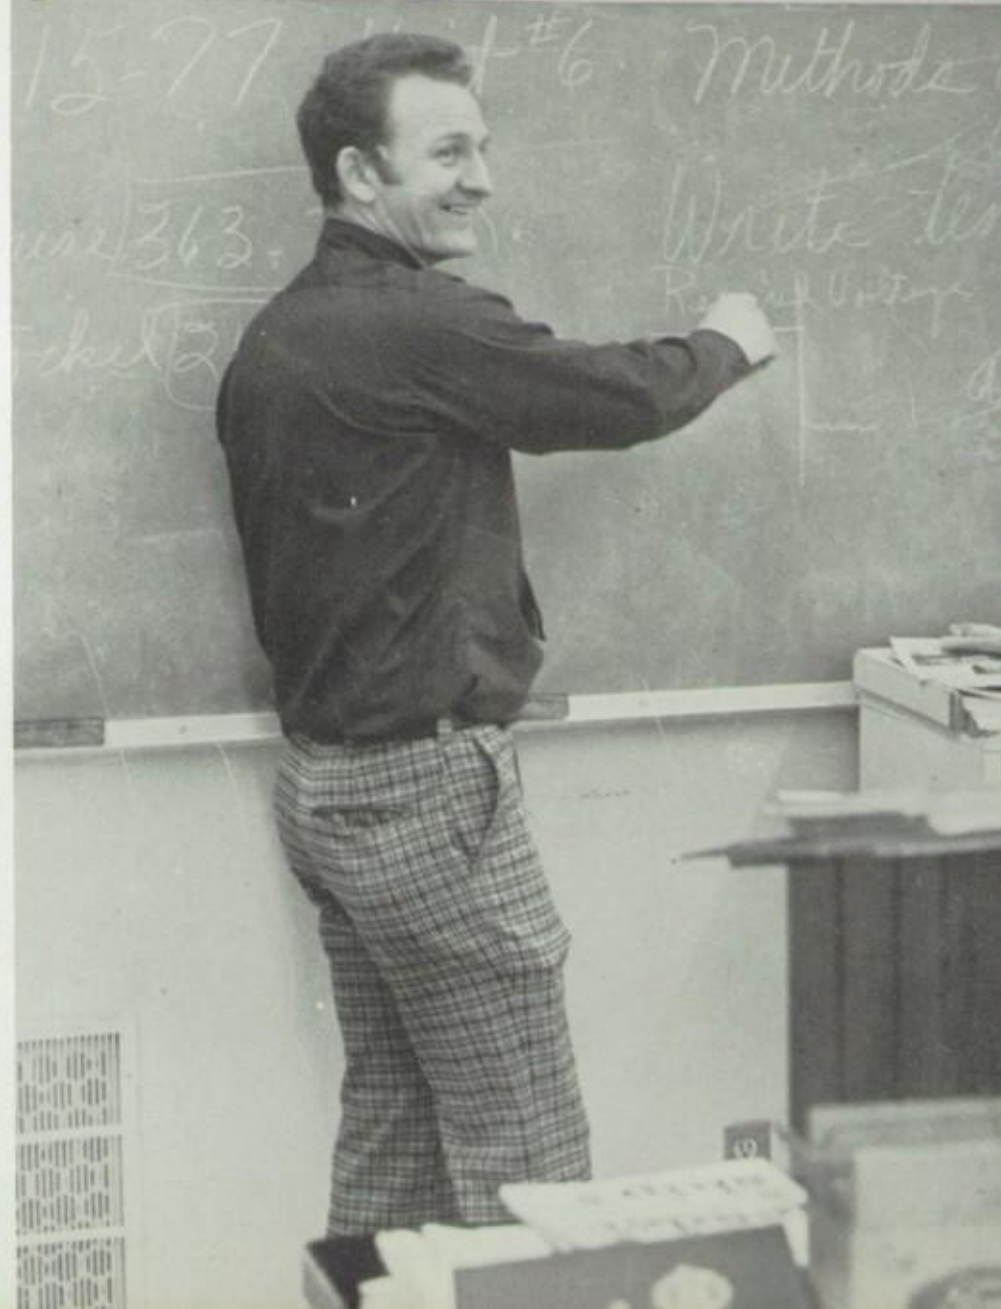

DRIVER'S ED.

1.) Mrs. Janell Mundell teaches the distributive education classes and sponsors DECA. 2.) Mrs. Helen Lyles instructs special education and co-sponsors cheerleaders. 3.) Mr. Leonard Nixon. 4.) Mrs. Lela Wright, Librarian. 5.) Mrs. Barbara Spidle teaches business courses at the Vo-Tech School. 6.) Mr. David Cassity teaches the SCOOP class and drafting. 7.) Mr. Cassity shows Roxie Fisher and Kathy Clarke how to properly draw a drafting exercise. 8.) Mrs. Raymah Blunt is the Vo-Tech school secretary. She keeps financial records and state records for Mr. Jerald Mundell (picture on page 126), Vo-Tech Principal.

Lela Wright Retires

After a teaching career of 35 years, Mrs. Lela Wright retired from the BHS faculty. Mrs. Wright first taught in Glenwood and Laclede before coming to Brookfield, where she taught for 33 years. Of those years here, Mrs. Wright has been high school librarian for the past 15 years.

Mrs. Wright's future plans include giving piano lessons and travel. Her funniest memory of BHS will be of the days when students threw candy over the half-partition between study hall and the library.

Jeff Nolte thrills his teeny-bopper fans as the "Shiek of Araby." Will he in 20 years? 4.) Kim Staley looks forward to her role as a future BHS Coquette. 5.) Donna Bahara—another Barbra Streisand? 6.) Just wait! We'll be Seniors someday!

POTENTIAL.

In Memory

The 1976-77 school year did not reach its end without tragedy.

On March 20, 1977 Jennifer Lynn Heaney, age 16, died in an automobile accident.

Jennifer was an active member and leader in school life, serving as her class president during her Sophomore year. She was a member of National Honor Society, FHA, FTA, B-Club, and Chorus. As a Coquette, she demonstrated style and talent.

Jennifer will be remembered and missed by her graduating classmates in 1978. Her life and spirited personality will be a firm memory for her friends.

The waiting . . .
of all life's realities.
Even though you're far away,
I can feel you close to me
And I know that before the sun rises in the morning . . .
I'll have you home, again, with me.
But while you're here
Let's build it to the fullest . . .
That we can . . .
And when you leave . . . again
Which I know you will . . .
Remember that . . . I love you
And know I always will.
Jennifer Heaney

Charles Patton, age 17, died on April 13, 1977 of a self-inflicted gun shot wound. He was an intelligent, quiet student who attended school without attracting attention to himself. Always courteous to his teachers, they asked themselves "Why?"

Seniors

COMMENCEMENT

BHS graduated 127 Seniors on May 15, 1977 in combined Baccalaureate and Commencement exercises held at Burlington Field. The invocation was given by Reverend Larry Scott and A Cappella Choir followed by singing "I Believe" with Bach Gounod's "Ava Maria." The Baccalaureate sermon and scripture was delivered by Reverend Clifford Hubbard. The Commencement address was given by Dr. Charles J. McClain, President of NMSU. Following the speaker, the band, under the direction of Mr. Elmer Pundmann played a musical selection from "The Sound of Music." Mr. Crossett presented the class and Mr. Kenneth Jones and Mr. Don Reipe handed out diplomas. The class and audience sang "The Halls of Brookfield" in closing.
